Dear Athletes, Coaches, Parents & Supporters,

Our competitions have missed you!

The last two years have most certainly been a trying time and we truly thank everyone who supported our events in 2021.

This year are very proud to bring you a five-event North Zone Series, as qualifiers for the Silver Series Playoffs at Angelstone, September 28 – October 2, 2022.

We are excited to welcome Ten Sixty Stables to the North Zone and together, with Ten Sixty competition management, we plan to offer you quality footing, stabling and exciting competition at our events in 2022.

As long-time members of the equine industry, we believe that it is incumbent on competitions and competition management to promote, invest in, and improve equestrian competitions for all ages, skill levels and finances of athletes and we are proud to announce that our competitions have grown dramatically both in offerings and participation of athletes and horses.

The goal of the Classics Series is to provide competitions that align with national and international standards and athlete pathways, thereby laying the groundwork for progression to provincial, national and international sport participation. Our events support the growth of the sport by providing a quality experience in preparation for championships and other recognized shows. We also believe in an enjoyable 'sport-for-life' experience for those wishing to stay active but without high-level competition aspirations.

We thank you for supporting our events in 2022 and we look forward to growing the sport, while contributing to quality competitions in Canada.

Thank you for your continued support.

- Christine Reupke

EQUESTRIAN CANADA, the National Federation of Canada, supports adherence to humane treatment of horses in all competitions under its jurisdiction. EQUESTRIAN CANADA is committed to:

Upholding the welfare of horses, regardless of value, is a primary consideration in all activities.

Requiring that horses be treated with kindness, respect, and the compassion that they deserve, and that they never be subjected to mistreatment. Ensuring that owner, trainer, exhibitors and their agents use responsible care in the handling, treatment and transportation of their horses as well as horses placed in their care for any purpose.

Providing for the continuous wellbeing of horses by encouraging routine inspection and consultation with health care professionals and competition officials to achieve the highest possible standards of nutrition, health, comfort, sanitation and safety as a matter of standard operating procedure.

Continuing to support scientific studies on equine health and welfare.

Increasing education in training and horsemanship practices.

Requiring owners, trainers and exhibitors to know and follow their sanctioning organization's rules and to work within industry regulations in all equestrian competitions. Reviewing, revising and developing competition rules and regulations that protect the welfare of horses.

The standard by which conduct or treatment will be measured is that which a reasonable person, informed and experienced in generally accepted equine training and exhibition procedures, would determine to be neither cruel, abusive nor inhumane. All participants at The Classics competitions are expected to abide by this Statement of Principle.

Please note the following when completing your entry forms.

* As per Article A801 the person responsible for a horse must be an adult who has, or shares, responsibility for the care, training, custody, and performance of the horse and who has official responsibility for that horse under EC rules and is liable under the penalty provisions of the Rules for any violation of the EC Rules. For the purposes of these Rules, the Person Responsible is normally the trainer, owner or competitor who rides or drives the horse during an event, or a parent or legal guardian in the case of junior competitors. The Person Responsible is ultimately responsible for the condition, fitness and management of the horse and is alone responsible for any act performed in the stables by himself or herself or by any other person with authorized access to the horse, or while the horse is being ridden, driven or exercised. The Person Responsible must hold a valid EC Sport License in good standing at the same level or higher in which the horse is competing. However, when the competitor is a Junior, the competitor cannot be the Person Responsible and the Person Responsible may be a parent/guardian who must be at minimum an EC or USEF member in good standing. The Entry Form must list the Person responsible' name, their EC or USEF member number and must be signed.
